Death Claims Little Girl.

Josie, aged five years, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs, M. A. Stubbs, died Tuesday night after a brief illness. She was the idol of her parents and thus over a happy home the shadow of a little grave has fallen, and as some one had said, it is wonderful how long a shadow a little grave can throw. Even though she seemed as a flower of paradise permitted to bloom only for a brief season her life was so fraught with blessing to her parents that her death leaves an void. After a brief aching funeral service the little body was laid to rest in Mt. Holly. Mr. and Mrs. Stubbs have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Miss Inez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCormac, was married to Mr. John Williams of Virginia at the home of the bride Tuesday evening. The cere-mony, which was witnessed by only the relatives of the family and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom, was performed by Rev. W. C. Kirkland. Im-mediately after the ceremony the happy young couple, accompanied by a number of friends, went to the A. C. L. station where they took the train for Asheville. After a brief sojourn among relatives of the groom Mr. and Mrs. Williams will go to their Virginia home where the groom is proprietor of a large mercantile establish-
